

Friends of Patuxent Pollinators Festival

Saturday, 21 September 2019

10:00am - 2:00pm

@ The Wildlife Viewing Area

In the Environmental Education Classroom
Various Presentations and Information

Wildlife Images Book Store

BUMBA: The Bowie-Upper Marlboro
Beekeepers Association

Keeping bees is all about connections: between insects and plants; between pollinators and our food supply; between the wonder of learning and the pride of directly participating, and between people who share the art, craft, and science of beekeeping with each other.

10:30am - 1:30pm Children game(s)
Monarch Migration
Every 30 minutes on the  $\frac{1}{2}$  hour

10:30-11:00am	11:30-12:00am
12:30-1:00pm	1:30-2:00pm

USGS Bee Inventory & Monitoring Lab
Learning presentations – native bee displays; fun games

1100- 1130am - Monarch Butterfly tagging demonstration & release if possible

1200 - 1245am - Nature walk

12:00pm - Monarch Sing a long at EEC area parking lot (Tentative)

1:00 - 1:30pm - Monarch Butterfly tagging demonstration & release if possible

